TILLMAN HAS BEEN THE LIGHT

The case of Senator Tillman and the case of Rip Van Winkle are similar with regard to time, except that Tillman lived much longer before the scales dropped off his eyes. Old Rip's somnolence still lasted 20 years, but the dear old senator from South Carolina has been in a dead, dreamless slumber for 53 years.

Fifty-three years ago Abraham Lincoln set the Negro free, and Senator Tillman just woke up about a week ago to announce that the abolition of slavery was a blessing to the slaveholder as well as a physical and moral deliverance to the slave.

Poor old Senator! All this half century and more his moral sense and intellectual powers have been benumbed. He has been groping and staggering through the country without light, without consciousness of his surroundings; cursing the Negro for being free; cursing the party that freed him; soaking his hands in the blood of the massacre of the Negroes at Hamburg, South Carolina; favoring and urging every form of proscriptive, state and national, against the Negro; justifying lynching, man-burning and other forms of assassination and murder against the Colored man, and after 53 years of such life, at last, to his obdurate heart has come a continent and to his bleared eyes has come a light, unknown to his dislate being before, that makes him say that the freedom of the Negro was a blessing to both the slaveholder and slave.

"While the lamp holds out to burn"

The vilest animus may return."

SURPRISES—GOOD TICKET—OUR DUTY

There were a great many surprises in the defeats at the Republican primaries on Tuesday, but, however, the results are very acceptable and satisfactory, and there is such a good ticket now presented to the suffrages of the Republican voters that the full strength of the party will support it at the election in November.

Our great party is now in battle array and, doubtless, the victory on November the 7th will be the most brilliant in the annals of the party whose victories and achievements have been remarkable for their frequency and splendor.

The Negro cast a strong primary vote for the reason that he was anxious to make himself a factor in the choice, as well as the election of men to office. This was no more than his duty and it was perfectly in line with his aspiration to establish his claim and contention for better recognition in appointments and places given out at the hands of the party, which his vote helped to elevate to power and control.

Year by year our opportunities for recognition have increased, and, year by year, through the increasing qualification of the Negro, he naturally insists on being given higher places and larger shares in the emoluments of office.

This ambition is not because the Negro thinks office-holding is the chief end of his existence, but, because it brings with it a respect that is due him and that is very helpful in other lines of life.

In the economy of life dollars are more valuable than respect, but those dollars must be gotten together and put into the support of right measures and right men to bring beneficial and lasting results.

Let us do both these things and do them effectively and much happier conditions will result.

Anyway we are on the heels of another great election, local, state and national. It may result in great changes in the state and national administration. The party that we help may be the one installed, and, it behooves us that we should be on guard.

If a Republican governor is elected we need keep tally on Jefferson City and jealously guard our rights in the state, and if a Republican president is elected, Washington should be our Mecca, and our mission should be the enforcement of the articles of the Constitution providing that no one shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law. That, would stop lynching.

EXPOSITION

According to a statement made by S. C. Howard, a place is set on foot as an exposition at 2116 Market Street about September 30, which will run for two months.

The purpose is to give an opportunity to show the progress of the Negro along all lines.

NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

The National Baptist Convention will be held at Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 6-13, 1914. Those contemplating attending should notify the committee at 2116 Market St., St. Louis, Mo., or at 500 Independence Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

SHAKESPEARIAN
TER-CENTENNIAL
AND PAGEANT

Eight Big Nights at Coleman Building Aug. 23, Ending Sept. 4—A display of American Negro progress play will be staged by Prof. Richard B. Harrison, one of the greatest actors and dramatists of our race.

Some of the leading educators and actors of our city will form the cast. The half-century of Negro progress will include all of the literature, art, science, education, and every conceivable line of Negro development.

We therefore invite all schools, churches, organizations and professions of all kinds to take part in this mammoth movement. The main door of the Coleman will be laid off in streets and squares and there will be a parade from ten to fifteen feet square.

See us at once, if you would like to exhibit and magnify your business. Rev. R. Gardner, 2116 Market St., St. Louis, Mo. 613 N. Garrison Ave. Phone, Room 316.

All calls will be given special attention.

Special Rally at
Christian Church
2727 Lawton Av.

There will be a special rally at the benefit of the building fund on Friday evening, Aug. 13th. Some of the best mediums in the city will be present to bring a message for all who will attend.

The public generally is invited to come and take part with them. Refreshments will be served from 7 to 9. J. S. Westford, Rector; R. Duke, Secretary.

REDEMPTION OF SOULS SPIRITUAL CHURCH

Since the uniting of the two churches, 2837 Market St. and 2641 Locust Ave., all meetings will be held at 2641 Locust Ave.

Mrs. Julia Johnson, Oracle, of The Redemption of Souls Spiritual Church at the above named address, is becoming one of the most popular of her meeting places in the city. Mrs. Johnson, who is the Oracle, seemed to be the right woman for the place. People who go there are helped in their spiritual life.

Hundreds attend the services and get in touch with the spirit world. It is remarkable and if you have never been there you ought to go. The place is usually crowded at each meeting and you must go early to get a seat. On account of the wide interest which is being manifested in the work which Mrs. Julia Johnson is doing, and feeling that she owes it to the many people who desire a more intimate knowledge of things spiritual, she has concluded to hold a season every night in the week for the next two weeks or longer if necessary to give the people a clearer idea of her work.

Very interesting and very profitable night meetings, services are held at 11:30 every Sunday morning. At 7:30 p. m. the service begins each night. Good service the best of it by offering to each new customer the first treatment and a box of Lydia E. Rose's Balm for $1.00.

Out of appreciation of the liberal patronage given us during the past few months, we have decided to give each new customer the best of it by offering to each new customer the first treatment and a box of Lydia E. Rose's Balm for $1.00.

Phone or call for prices. Mrs. E. Slaughter-Gamble, 3001 Lawton Ave. This offer is good until the end of the month. We are desiring to take advantage of it should register at once.

LAMM APPEARS WINNER

OVER JOHN E. SWANGER

Former Judge's Strength in Country as Well as City Surprises Opponents—Gardner's Victory Conceded.

St. Louis, Aug. 4.—Primary returns on Tuesday's state primary, indicated the almost certain nomination of former Judge Henry Lamm, Republican, and Col. Fred D. Gardner, Democrat, as their party nominees for governor at the November election.

Predictions Thursday from Jefferson City, based upon unofficial reports or far fetched news, that Mr. Lamm had defeated John E. Swanger for the Republican nomination for governor by over 4,000 to 10,000.

Unofficial incomplete figures announced from Kansas City Thursday gave Lamm 67,330, Swanger 43,318.

The nomination of Lamm on the Republican ticket came as a surprise in many of the leading circles here, who have supported Swanger for the office. Lamm's strength in the country, in counties heretofore won by the Swanger forces, was a revelation. The Lamm vote to Kansas City, St. Joseph and Springfield gave the former judge a majority which Swanger will not be able to overcome, according to returns now available.

The nomination of Gardner on the Democratic ticket had been forecast by many of the leaders here, and the claims of the supporters of John M. Atkinson had led many to believe that the race between Gardner and Atkinson would be closer than available returns indicated.

The Atkinson supporters Thursday conceded Gardner's nomination. Sam Leasure of the Atkinson-for-Governor executive committee, said:

"I don't think there is any doubt in the least of Gardner's nomination, and in the good Democratic circles here, to get behind Gardner and help select his governor of Missouri in November."

The primary contest on governor is both the Republican and the Democratic parties had developed into a "wet and dry" fight to a large extent. With the exception of the few counties, Lamm and Swanger, both of whom were opposed by the Anti-Saloon League, party leaders took upon the "wet and dry" issue, and the result was that the voters and eliminated from the November election.

Atkinson, on the Democratic ticket, had been endorsed by the Anti-Saloon League and Swanger on the Republican ticket was looked upon as the "dry" candidate by the Lamm supporters. Gardner, on the other hand, was looked upon as the "wet" candidate by the Swanger vote in St. Louis Tuesday.

All the candidates for governor in both Republican and Democratic parties had carried their home counties, with the exception of Swanger, who lost Pettis county to Judge Lamm by a vote of nearly 2 to 1. This was a surprise to many of the fact that Swanger made no campaign in his county.

An expert visit to St. Louis Swanger explained that he had not even had a card in his pocket in Pettis county in his own behalf, but had decided not to contest the county with Lamm. Both candidates in Pettis to Bedalia in the Republican primary, and both candidates, Dickey carried Kansas City and Jackson county, while Atkins carried St. Louis over Swanger, who also lost Jackson county to Lamm.

Other candidates for state office, but whose names are not yet available, but indications are that all candidates carried their home counties.

In the congressional race indications are that all the present congressmen were re-nominated. Congressman Booe, in the Fourth district, is believed to have been again chosen by the Democrats. In St. Louis the surprise of the congressional contests was in the nomination by the Democrats of the Twelfth district of Michael J. Gill over Samuel Rosenfield.

Rosenfield's nomination was freely predicted by local Democratic leaders who knew of the opposition of many of the congressional leaders to Gill's candidacy. The official returns, however, show Gill's nomination over Rosenfield by eight votes. While Rosenfield was expected to get the support of the Twenty-third ward, it went almost 2 to 1 for Gill. Congressman George Hobbs of the Twenty-third explained that his defeat by Gill was due to the fact that Gill was a constant campaigner and had the good will of the labor vote.

The township committeemen in the counties of the state and the ward committeemen in the cities, who were elected at Tuesday's primary, were expected to be the first to organize the various county and city committees. The new St. Louis Republicans and Democratic city committees will be organized at that time.

No Trouble.
 "Do you boys say you're going to vote for Swanger where you live?" asked the city man.

"None whatever," replied the commutator.

"No surprise me."
 "I thought I would. You see, we can't get any servants in the street here. We have no true home keeping them."

Choosing the Lesser.
 "We have under double blankets every night out where I live."

"It must be deliciously cool out there."

"Cool!"
 "I don't think about anything about it being cool. It's better than being hot, but we need the blankets to keep the mosquitoes off."

GARDNER'S VOTE

STILL GROWING

ST. LOUIS MAN PROVES EASY WINNER IN DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY.

LAMM IS REPUBLICAN WINNER

Counties So Far Reporting Make Little Change in Standing of Candidates—Palmer Runs Abominably Late.

St. Louis, Aug. 4.—Primary returns from 25 counties and the City of St. Louis, tabulated early today, gave Frederick D. Gardner, winner of the Democratic nomination for governor, a lead of 7,341 over John M. Atkinson, his nearest opponent.

Judge Henry Lamm, running almost as well out in the state as John E. Swanger, seems to have captured the Republican nomination for governor with ease. Returns from 25 counties and St. Louis give Lamm 62,343 and Swanger 43,318. Unpublished gains must be made by Swanger if he is to overcome this lead.

Officials of the Lamm-for-governor club had received returns from 71 counties up to midnight. At that time the lead of Lamm over Swanger would not come to St. Louis with more than 4,000 plurality over Lamm. In St. Louis, Lamm has a plurality of 23,000.

Both Judge Lamm and J. E. Swanger are confident that they can win out to the race for the Republican nomination for governor. Gardner, estimated that his large plurality in the cities would give him a lead of at least 8,000 votes over his opponent.

State Senator John M. Atkinson, a resident of Bedalia, contends that when the vote is finally counted his majority will be in the neighborhood of 4,000.

Late last night the Lamm headquarters issued the following statement: "We are making no claims. We believe Lamm will carry the state by between 8,000 and 9,000 votes, but in any case, win or lose, we are still confident."

Democratic candidates for governor received the following votes to St. Louis and the 38 counties:

Gardner, 73,451; Atkinson, 17,737; Roach, 13,935; Barker, 12,589; Lindsey, 15,541; Palmer, 5,370; and Hochstetler, 13,176.

Charles Lindsey will succeed in carrying Roach from third place was a subject of speculation among politicians all day. The estimate was played by the press, and Lindsey was one of the big surprises of the race.

Another factor that disrupted the Gardner, Lindsey, Atkinson and Swanger to the country. All throughout the campaign it had been hoped out that he would run a bad second out in the state and that his vote would be an overwhelming large vote to St. Louis.

The complete crumbling of the Kiehl-Behler ticket in St. Louis gave Swanger a big handicap and carried out one part of the dopest's predictions. But the big surprise was that the big surprise was that Swanger so far have failed to materialize, and he accordingly is out in the cold.

The nominees are:

For United States Senator—James B. Rogers, Democrat; Dick R. Governor—Fred D. Gardner, Dem.; Henry Lamm, R.

For Lieutenant Governor—Wallace Crowder, Dem.; Roy Britton, R.

For Attorney General—Frank McAllister, Dem.; James B. Mason, R.

For Secretary of State—J. Kelly Pool, Dem.; William C. Arkin, R.

For Auditor—George Middleton, Dem.; Alfred V. H. B.

For Supreme Court (No. 1)—A. M. Woodson, Dem.; Robert S. Robertson, R.

For Supreme Court (No. 2)—Fred Williams, Dem.; Edward Higgins, R.

Congressmen Renominated.

Virtually all the members of the Missouri delegation in Congress have been re-nominated. The only exceptions received from different parts of the state. Representative Lloyd of the First District was not a candidate for re-election. His Congressmen had no opposition. They are Spencer Clark and Representative Berland, Dickinson, Russell, Decker and George H. Ward.

Received here today of the renomination of Representative Alexander, Blackford, Mosher, Igoe and Dyer.

Representative Alexander of the Third District received word that he is leading in every county of his district except one, where his vote is none. Alexander, however, is confident that he has been re-nominated.

Representative Roemer of the Fourth District apparently is winning. His opponent, George H. Ward, is still in doubt.

Representative Ramsey of the Third District apparently is winning. His opponent, George H. Ward, is still in doubt.

Representative Roemer of the Fourth District apparently is winning. His opponent, George H. Ward, is still in doubt.

MISS LILLIAN KNIGHT,
ALTOON, ILLINOIS

At a recent church contest for the most popular young lady in Altoon the people by their votes conferred that honor upon Miss Lillian Knight. At the graduating exercises of the high school last June, Miss Knight was the only one of our race to receive a diploma, and is said (by her instructor) to be one of the most brilliant scholars of her class.

Miss Knight was a delegate to the Sunday-school convention at Jackson, Mo., where she was elected assistant secretary of the state. She is also a teacher in the Primary Department of the A. W. M. E. Sunday-school.

Mr. Conrad Knight, the father, is well known K. of P. and is very popular throughout the state. Her present mother is a St. Louis lady, her eyes mother having died three years ago. Miss Knight is seventeen years of age.
